

THE BULLETIN.

Published at the Bulletin Building
Washington Avenue.

THE CAIRO DAILY BULLETIN, issued every morning except Monday, will be mailed every morning on the Cairo and Vincennes passenger train, to subscribers and news-dealers from twelve to twenty-four hours in advance of the St. Louis, Cincinnati, and Chicago papers, with full and complete associated press reports of the news, markets, etc., from Chicago, New York, St. Louis, New Orleans, Memphis, and all other points of interest.

THE BULLETIN is furnished news-dealers daily at 3 cents per copy, payable weekly; and to subscribers by mail at $10 per year, payable in advance.

CORRECTION.—The notice published in THE BULLETIN on Tuesday, stating that the Qui Vive Coterie club would give a Christmas party at the St. Charles hotel on Tuesday evening, Dec. 24, was incorrect. The ball will be given on the 25th, Christmas night.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.—The largest assortment of the above can be found at E. & W. Bader's, corner of Eighth street and Washington avenue, consisting of the finest watches, sets of jewelry, silver and plated ware, rings of every description, opera chains, necklaces, gold and ivory headed canes, bracelets, clocks, spoons, and in fact everything that can be called for in a jewelry store. They keep the largest stock in their line in Southern Illinois.

ATHEUM LAST NIGHT.—In spite of the inclemency of the weather a fine and appreciative audience assembled to greet Mr. & Mrs. Selden Irwin, and Harry Rainforth, who are acknowledged as the cleverest in their several specialties. We can assure our readers that no more enjoyable entertainment can be found than at the Athenaeum, during the stay of this talented combination. In presenting to the public the drama entitled the Marble Heart, Mr. Irwin as Kipling, certainly established himself as an actor of more than ordinary ability, and we must say that his acting was better than we have seen on the boards of the theatre in the larger cities. Mrs. Irwin as Marco was excellent, while the Volcano of Mr. Rainforth was the best piece of character acting we have yet seen on the Cairo stage. The character, though a difficult one, was handled with perfect ease, and places Mr. Rainforth as a character actor far above those who lay claims to more. The other characters were all ably represented and the place was produced in excellent style. Tonight Rip Van Winkle, with Mr. Rainforth as "Rip," and the other characters by the company, will be produced. Let everybody go. It will be a rare treat.

What is anemia? Literally, no blood. The blood, which is the life, becomes impoverished by disease; the slightest exertion weakens us; one feels no energy what over; universal lassitude seems to prevail; many become so wretched as almost to prefer death to life. The remedy for all this is simple; the diseased matter must be extracted from the blood and carried out from the body. The kidneys will do all this if only the right stimulant be given to them. Parker's Compound Fluid Extract of Buchu has done wonders in just such cases. Let the afflicted try it. For sale by all druggists everywhere.

PIANOS AND ORGANS.—E. & W. Bader are the only agents that keep pianos and organs in stock in Southern Illinois. They keep different makes, Knabe's, Bauer's, etc. Call and examine the instruments, as they are of the best in the country.

Unrepentable E. Lufkin of Anna, Illinois, has come to Cairo and opened a first-class grocery and provision store on Commercial avenue between 17th and 18th streets. He is a gentlemanly and accomplished business man, who is thoroughly reliable and deals upon the square with his patrons. Call and see him. 4*

CHRISTMAS PARTY.—A grand party will be given at the St. Charles hotel on Wednesday evening, Dec. 25, under the auspices of the Qui Vive Coterie. Dancing will commence at half-past eight o'clock. Tickets $2.

ELECTION NOTICE.—The annual meeting of the stock-holders of the City National bank for the election of seven directors will be held at the Bank, Tuesday, January 14, 1873. Polls open from 10 o'clock a.m. to 2 o'clock p.m.

NOTICE.—Is hereby given that I will pay no bills for goods sold to any of the employees of THE CAIRO BULLETIN, either for themselves or for THE BULLETIN office, unless the same is sold on an order signed by Mr. Barnett or myself.

JOHN H. OBERLY.

We suppose everyone knows that E. & W. Bader are the largest manufacturers in the jewelry line in the city. If you want to have something nicely made give them a call.

Lost.—On Washington avenue, on Tuesday evening, a sewing machine, patcher and tucker. The finder is requested to return the same to Katie Connolly. 2*

—The German School society will give a ball on the night of the 26th instant, the proceeds to be applied to the benefit of the school. Mrs. Meyers and Mrs. Gossman are engaged in selling tickets.

—Harry Rainforth of the Olympic theatre, St. Louis, will assume the character of Rip Van Winkle at the Athenaeum to-night. As this will be Selden Irwin's benefit night the house should be crowded. It is said that Rainforth is as good as Joe Jefferson. Go and see him.

—Captain J. B. Corbett, formerly commander of the steamer St. Joseph, but lately of the Emma C. Elliott, fell dead of apoplexy, on the last down trip of his boat. The fatal fatality occurred near Fulton, Tennessee, and was due, in part, probably, to the excitement and anxiety caused by the steamer having been aground for some days. The remains were sent to Nashville, where Captain Corbett's family resides, for interment.

—Ladies will find at Burger's, 144 Commercial avenue, fine goods of all kinds, selected with special reference to the holiday season; men and boys will find all kinds of boots and shoes, and ladies' and misses' shoes that will give perfect satisfaction. Mr. Burger has also dress goods, shawls, skirts, furs of all kinds—such as minks, sables, etc.; all new, just received from the East, and now being sold at very low prices—at figures reduced to meet the demands of the holiday trade, so that the nimble penny may be turned instead of the slow dollar. Call and see for yourself.

—Sewing machine findings of every kind, such as needles, oil, springs, shuttles, bobbins, castors, tick-markers, corders, bousers, oil cans, screw drivers, wrenches and all different parts of the machine that wear out. Also collecting rollers, the best in use. All kinds of machines repaired. Persons at a distance can adjust the machine from the stand, pack it in a box or basket and send by express. All were warranted. J. C. CARSON, 156 Commercial avenue, between Ninth and Tenth streets. 12-15-1m.

—Gen. E. F. Winslow, one of the contractors of the Cairo and Vincennes railroad, has been appointed general manager of the road. General Winslow has entered upon the duties of his office, and has appointed John Lee, Jr. of Cairo, Illinois, superintendent, and Charles O. Wood, of this city, assistant superintendent. Mr. Wood's headquarters will be in this city. The appointment will meet the cordial approval of the people of Cairo. Colonel Wood during his residence here, has made many warm friends, all of whom will welcome the announcement, that he is to remain among us.

—Toys, notions and fancy goods. The best and cheapest place to get your toys and fancy goods, is on Commercial avenue, between Ninth and Tenth streets—No. 155, as we keep toys the year round and sell at regular prices. We are just in receipt of a new and fresh lot of goods, among which is a fine assortment of Christmas tree ornaments, which we sell to churches and other institutions at cost prices. J. C. CARSON, No. 155, Commercial avenue, between Ninth and Tenth streets. 12-15-2w.

COMING. CHRISTMAS, and at No. 22 Eighth street, is a complete stock of Holiday goods in the following lines: Groceries, Fruits and Toys—some of which are London layer and seedless oranges, zante currants, citron, sweet and tinned elder, apple butter, mince meat, apples, oranges, lemons, figs, and candied (mixed by ourselves); skates from common styles.

New York club, Toy Bedsteads, Wagons, Cars, Perambulators, Wheelbarrows and Holiday goods of every description, and other goods of the best brands, in large variety. Canned Fish, Bottled goods, Sausage, Pickles and Jellies, Fireworks, etc., etc., at BRISTOL & STILLWELL'S.

CAIRO. —We yesterday received the following from Col. Wood, assistant superintendent of the C. & V. R. R., which we cheerfully insert in our columns:

J. H. OBERLY, Esq., Dear Sir:—In your issue of Tuesday last, in speaking of the engineer and conductor who supervised the Cairo and Vincennes Railroad, you gave his name as Reed. Mr. Reed is a celebrated engineer, now in charge of the Mississippi Central railroad, but is Col. E. C. Rice, formerly chief engineer of the Ohio and Mississippi railroad, the Vanderbilt and other roads, who deserves the credit of being the chief engineer of the C. & V. R. R. Please make the correction and oblige.

Yours truly, etc., CHAS. O. WOOD, Asst. Supt.

—The Selden Irwin combination troupe will give a grand ladies' matinee Saturday afternoon. Let all take their children. We assure them they will come away well pleased.

—Through an inadvertency, very slight mention was made in THE BULLETIN of Wednesday morning of the toy tables at the soiree on Tuesday night. These tables were under the supervision of Mrs. Thornton and Mrs. Gallagher, everything on them and in the room in which they were placed having been selected and arranged by these two ladies. The tables contained a beautiful and costly selection of silver ware and toilet ornaments from Taber Bros., handsome toilet sets, jewel caskets, etc., etc., from Schull's; a bewildering variety of Christmas toys from Phil. Saup's; everything that would tempt the eye of the young folks from Parsons, Davis & Co's; similar contributions from Mr. Carson; the walls of the room were adorned with fine chromos, beautiful wall-pockets, etc., from Mr. Horace Hanson's; and a novelty in the shape of porcelain heads of dogs, horses, deer, and other animals from Bristol and Stillwell's. Mr. Jones of the National Line, and Mr. Osborn, who kindly vacated their offices Tuesday night for the use of the ladies, excelled the ladies in the virtue of patience. The ladies who presided at the tables, were Miss Alice Lane, Miss Annie Pichey, Miss Katie Hager, Miss Lauretta Walbridge, and Miss Eva Harmon. The toy tables were a great success. A large amount of money was taken in by the ladies having the tables in charge. They were the novel feature of the soiree, and succeeded beyond the utmost expectations of their projectors. Many handsome Christmas presents were sold during the evening.

If you want to find a suitable present for anybody, call at Bader's, and you will be suited.

CONDITION OF THE RIVERS.

The Ohio is still on the rise at this port with a fair channel to Evansville. Above Louisville the ice is so heavy that navigation is unsafe. The Kanawha is still frozen over. A rise is not expected at Pittsburgh until next month. There is still five feet reported at Point Pleasant, and nothing aground. The Mississippi river remains un navigable and full of ice.

Special dispatches to THE BULLETIN report the condition of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers at various places.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The many friends of Captain Corbett of the Emma C. Elliott will be shocked to hear of his sudden death by a stroke of apoplexy. All steamers in port had their flags at half mast in token of memory.

BUSINESS AND WEATHER.

Business on the levee was not very brisk on the landings yesterday owing to the bad weather which was rainy and disagreeable.

The Alaska and barges arrived from Caseyville where they have been aground and laid up for several weeks. She stayed here several hours transferring, and got away yesterday morning.

The Porten cleared for New Orleans early yesterday morning with her three barges loaded to the water.

The three barges which the Mohawk took out, contained eighteen hundred tons of freight.

The Mary Miller arrived from the Ohio with the freight of the R. C. Young, and left after dinner with a good trip.

The Continental with a barge in tow came up from below bringing hardly any freight, and will go to the bank.

The Ada Hoffman from Evansville brought in a big trip.

The Mitchell sent her Evansville freight up to the Hellman and will lay up for the present.

The towboat Wild Cat with a barge in tow started to St. Louis, but had been gone but a few hours when she returned and gave the job up.

Capt. P. R. Pogram takes command of his fine steamer James Howard on her arrival here.

The Dexter will commence loading for New Orleans in a day or two.

The Commonwealth has finished up her cargo, and it was expected she would leave last night, but probably may have been detained by bad weather.

The Bulls of Pike got away for Memphis with a good trip of freight and people.

The tug Flora is running between here and Mound City under the command of Capt. Sandusky, and is doing a big business.

If you want to get a piano, organ, or any other musical instrument, for a Christmas or New Year's gift, you can find them at E. & W. Bader's.
